

Details, Craftsmanship, Value ...

Jon Gouzin, Studio One Photography

Not only is it absolutely gorgeous (we feel like we are walking into a model showroom), it also meets all of our functional needs... Thanks for treating our project with the same care and energy as if it was your very own home."

Chris and Steve, Hollis, NH

Remodeling can give you the home you've always wanted, build equity, and set your house apart when it's time to sell. The award winning design-build remodeling company of David R. Crupi, LLC is known for their distinctive details, master craftsmanship, and exceptional value. Backed by over 25 years of experience, they provide complete remodeling services from project design, through implementation, and warranty their work. Their distinctive spaces encompass kitchens and baths, master suites, home offices, built-ins, attic and basement conversions, decks, garages, and additions.

Their stunning work is featured in numerous publications including: New Hampshire Magazine, Kitchen and Bath Design News, and Stone Dimensions. They also grace the pages of several cabinetry manufacturers' brochures.

For the past two years David R. Crupi, LLC has received the coveted Gold Cornerstone Award for Residential Interior Design, in New Hampshire. Their Design Center proudly displays awards in a number of categories, ranging from kitchens to handcrafted finish work.

In 2005 they adopted hunter green as their company color, evidence of their commitment to green design. All of their cabinet lines have received the Kitchen and Cabinetry Manufacturers Association Environmental Stewardship Program certification, and exceed EPA guide lines. They are also EPA Lead Certified, which is now a requirement to remodel homes built prior to 1978.

In addition to the meticulous quality of their work, what distinguishes David R. Crupi, LLC is their ability to listen, educate, and provide guidance. The extent to which they care is evident in their "excellent" client satisfaction rating. Ask them and they are only too happy to provide you with letters from satisfied clients! Whether you're look is contemporary or traditional, you can be assured of an innovative design tailored to your unique style and budget.

David R. Crupi, LLC holds a MA Home Improvement Contractors License, is fully insured, and registered in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Vermont. They are members of the National Association of Home Builders, and the Home Builders and Remodelers Association of New Hampshire.

David R. Crupi, LLC

603-465-7003

davidcrupi@charter.net